

TRENT HOUSE
Mercer County

This colonial mansion was built in 1719 by William Trent, a wealthy merchant, political leader and Chief Justice of New Jersey. The Trent House was used three times as the official residence of the Governor of the state.